[From the Rich Hill Mining Review.] At a meeting of the stockholders of the Fort Scott division of the Lexington, Lake and Gulf R. R. Company, held Friday last, at of Howard county. Fort Scott, the following board of directors was elected: B. J. Waters, A. A. Harris, th, for Itaska Encampment No. 6: C. G. T. F. Robley, D. E. Pritchard, W. C. Hickman and J. B. Baylers. The board afterward organized by re-electing B. J. Waters president; T. F. Robley, vice-president; J. S. Baylers, secretary; D. E. Pritchard, treasurer, and A. A. Harris, attorney. This road is to run from Fort Scott via Butler, Mo. ; thence to a point on the Chicago and ward organized a company with the same officers, called the Chicago, Fort Scott and Oklahema R. R. Co., to run from Fort Scott through the countles of Allen, Wilson Chatauqua, Cowley and Sumner, to the Indian territory line. From the preceding action, it will be seen hat the old road-bed of the Burlington and Southwestern road (Lexington, Lake and Golf) constructed in 1872-3, and running through Lafayette, Cass and Bates counties, after lying dormant for so many years is, at iast, to be utilized. The original route of the B. & S. company extended from Burlington, lows, to Nevada, Mo., and had the road been built in 1873-4, as was contemplated in the programme laid down at that time would have been the first and leading outhwestern railroad, cutting through the e Indian territory. But it never was built id equipped beyond Laclede, Liun county, halt occurred, half a dozen years Recently, however, the charter, fran-part of the old line, and are now about con pleting the six miles of road between La oad will be run through Carroll county, vis Carrollton to Lexington, in Lafavette counv (original route). From that point Kansa City is to be its destination. When the road reaches Kansas City, the company will de olde the question of moving south, in this ently reported that the Chicago and Alto mpany had obtained possession of the old oad-bed of the Burlington and Southwest ern company south of the Missourf river and lying in the counties of Lafavette, Cas and Bates. Believing it was the true policy of the Chicago and Alton to strike for the point, with Oklahoma as a terminus, the he officials was that the matter had bee ubmitted to the director of the company that it had been discussed ; that the company decided it was not expedient at that time t was no doubt eventually of such movemen Alton company to get a toothold in the south west, in the following words; . . . umor is worth anything, the time is at hand o make the extension indicated.
